CREPONS—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

HERE'S TO CREPONS,

THE POPULAR CRAZE OF '95.

Some very, very crepy Crepons here, others just slightly so, with many go-between stages, ranging from the somewhat neat, yet distinctly marked "rock" Crepons, to those with bold, broad, and wave-like protuberances.

Crepons are here in solid colors, such as Mocha, Reseda, Rose-tan, Navy, Myrtle, dark Bleu et and Black—much the most of the latter.

Crepons here in two-toned effects, such as Pink, Bleu et, Red, and Tan deftly blended with Black. In all silk, all wool, and silk and wool combined.

Crepons as cheap as are made—as fine as are sold anywhere—for the multitude of the millionaire.

Crepons in separate and exclusive pattern lengths, as well as in solid chunks, containing many yards. Fifty styles if there's one.

Owing to scarcity and phenomenal demand, prices on many lines have been advanced in New York City—but not here.

Our buyer reports that some of the handsomest styles which he purchased while in New York City last week, were stolen from his stock not less than three times; but they're safely here now. Come at once for first pick from the finest line of Crepons in Wheeling. There's danger in delay.

Butchers' Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the Wheeling Butchers' association last night officers were elected as follows: President, Charles Hoffmann; vice president, O. Kalbitzer; treasurer, B. Gardner; finance committee, C. Kalbitzer and John Dunkle; board of directors, Charles Rohrig, George Zeeckler, George Weimer, J. C. Medick, John Dunkle, William P. Meyer and G. H. Medick.

Lecture by Dr. Sperry.

Next Tuesday evening Prof. Lyman B. Sperry will deliver the closing lecture in the Y. M. C. A. course. Seats will be reserved on Saturday morning. Prof. Sperry's lectures are practical, sensible, useful and his manner is captivating. His vivacity and freshness always gain for him the careful attention of his audience, and his thoughts always instruct. His subject will be "Gumption and Grit."

For the Church's Benefit.

The Dorcas society of the Third Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. S. J. Pipes, on Fourteenth street, and passed a very enjoyable evening. Twenty-four ladies were present to hear of the result of the completion of a Dorcas quilt started six years ago. Those present each had an interest in a patch of the completed quilt and on it $175 in the aggregate was raised for the church. The quilt was presented to Mrs. Pipes. Rev. Mr. Bigger, pastor of the church and Mrs. Bigger, were present.

Wheeling Captures Two.

The window displays of "Frog in the Throat" made by two Wheeling druggists, John Coleman and Harry C. Stewart, both of the South Side, have been mentioned in the INTELLIGENCER. They were notable for the taste displayed in arrangement and accessories. Yesterday the two men of drugs received letters from the manufacturers of the medicine stating that Coleman had captured third prize in the window display contest and that Stewart was not far behind, securing fourth prize. As thousands of druggists all over the United States competed in this contest, Wheeling is very lucky to draw two prizes.

Goetze-Bieberson.

Last night at the residence of Mr. Henry Bieberson, on South street, his daughter, Miss Emma Bieberson, was married to Mr. Carl Goetze. Rev. William Uffert, of St. John's church, performed the ceremony. Only the relatives and closest friends of the contracting parties and the family witnessed the marriage, and the affair was entirely without ostentation, but was yet one of the prettiest home weddings witnessed in Wheeling in a long time. An informal reception and an excellent repast followed. Mr. Goetze is the well known and successful artistic designer at the Ohio Valley pottery, and has been in Wheeling about five years. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bieberson. The young couple enter upon married life under the most enviable auspices. They were the recipients of many most sincere congratulations and well wishes.

THE RESCUE HOME.

The Movement Set on Foot Last Night. Money Subscribed.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the meetings at the Hearne tabernacle for the purpose of encouraging the projected Rescue Home in this city, continued, and at the evening meeting, the last of the series, the sentiment desired seemed to have developed, as several gentlemen subscribed to the fund that is to be used to establish the home. Judge Campbell subscribed $50, and Mr. Crittenton, who has been conducting the meetings, said he would subscribe the same amount, or as large an amount as would be given by a Wheeling man.

Musical and Literary Entertainment.

to be given by J. W. Holliday Woman's Relief Corps No. 1, in G. A. R. hall, Thursday evening, March 7. Refreshments will be served after entertainment. As this is for charity, we hope the public will give us the encouragement of their patronage. Everybody assured a good time. Admission 10 cents.

THEY PLEAD GUILTY.

Colored Prisoners Arraigned in the Criminal Court

ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY DID IT.

Sentence is Deferred—A Large Number of Persons under Indictment for Misdemeanor also 'Fess up and get their Dose—Jail Sentences in Some Cases.

In the criminal court yesterday, Judge T. J. Hugus on the bench, R. N. G. Thomas, alias "Orange," colored, indicted for stealing a watch from Dr. Alexander's house at Altonheim, plead guilty. Charles Woodward, also colored, against whom six true bills were returned for stealing from a Baltimore & Ohio dining car, also plead guilty on all six of the indictments, and Oliver Dodson, also colored, indicted for assault on his wife, also plead guilty. Sentence was deferred in all three cases until a later day.

In the case for gambling twelve of the parties indicted plead guilty and paid fines of $10 and costs each. John Goldenburg, William Gaudling and George Livingstone, for running policy games, got $10 and costs each and one day in jail. Livingstone, for selling on Sunday, also got $20 and costs. Charles Oberman, for selling without a license, got $10 and costs and one day in jail in each case. William Knoke, Joseph Michel and Sherry & Lyon got $20 and costs each. Eight keepers of houses of ill fame got $25 and costs each, and ten inmates $5 and costs each.

Just as court was about to adjourn William Kline, a young man who refused to appear and testify before the grand jury when summoned, was arrested in the court room on a rule, requiring him to appear Saturday and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

A Forged Check.

Last night a stranger attempted to forge a check for $22 on Mrs. M. V. Mendley, who keeps a dry goods store on Hanover street, Martin's Ferry. He entered the store about 8:30 o'clock and bought goods amounting to $7.98. He said he was traveling salesman for the Buckeye Glass Company and lived in Bridgeport. He presented check to Mrs. Mendley for the sum mentioned, and this aroused her suspicion. She went to two stores nearby to satisfy herself of the genuineness of the check, and one of the merchants discovered that the signature which it bore was "A. W. Seamon," and that the writing was not that of A. D. Seamon, president of the Buckeye glass works. Returning to the store, Mrs. Mendley questioned the man more closely, asking who A. W. Seamon was, she pretending ignorance, and the chap replied, "Why, he's secretary and general manager of the glass works."

Mrs. Mendley told him to get the check cashed himself and he could then get the goods. The fellow said he would, but did not. The check was on the Commercial Bank, Martin's Ferry. The authorities were notified and Mayor Westwood and Marshal Moore arrested a man, who was pointed out to them as the probable guilty man, but Mrs. Mendley said he was not the one.

But Did Not Get Much.

Yesterday morning one of the firemen of the Hook and Ladder company discovered a side door of the Maxwell mansion on Market street, below the Y. M. C. A. building, was open. The house is occupied by Miss Mary E. Maxwell when she is at home, but as she is away, it was evident that some unbidden guest had been prowling about. The fireman called in Mr. Eckert, one of the trustees of the Maxwell estate, but it was not thought that anything valuable had been taken by the thief.

Miss Maxwell, who is a great traveler, has been away from Wheeling a month, and was in San Francisco Saturday. On Sunday she set sail for Hawaii, where she will spend several weeks.

In the Police Court.

In the police court yesterday morning William Gore and Ann Gore, his wife, were arraigned on charges of disorderly conduct, but sentence was suspended on their promising that they would be good. Rosa and Nancy Scott, of the famous nomadic family of that name, were also let go on their plea that they wanted to go to Steubenville. That was considered punishment enough.
